

Truss Signs

The August monthly training bulletin is on the identification of buildings that utilize truss construction.

Please see our Training Message for August 2022 on Truss Signs. This will be good information to share in your fire station or during a training session.

Truss Signs

Don't forget to take advantage of the National Grid First Responder Training! The training is self-paced and FREE.

National Grid Training

As always, don't hesitate to share this information.